

II. Think back to the highs and lows of this summer vacation. We'd love a peek into what has happened with your child at home & any changes in your lives that we should know about.

6. What have you noticed about how your child has changed this summer?

7. As your child becomes more independent – which is completely normal!! -- what recurring struggles do you experience with your child?

8. How much combined “screen time” (computer and TV combined) will your child usually have on weekdays this school year? How about on weekends?

9. What are the after school activities (school & other team sports, classes, etc.) you expect your child to be involved in this school year?

10. Are there any recent events or changes in your home life that we should be aware of such as death, move, sickness, separation, divorce?

11. Anything else for the 7th grade team, Focus, and Branch teachers to be aware of? Also, please let the administration know if you have any important information, which is not listed on the survey that you would like them to know about.

12. What are some Parent Workshops/Information Sessions/Book Studies that you would like to see offered this year (ex. Setting up a working homework plan, college planning, how to talk to your teens about alcohol/substance abuse, understanding the minds and communicating with teens, etc., navigating through cyberworld with your teen, gender issues among teens, bullying/cliques)?
